

The Bernard Heerey Family Foundation Scholarship

What is the Heerey Scholarship?

The Heerey Scholarship was established to make it possible for middle-income families who have multiple children in day school and who receive tuition assistance to continue their children's Jewish education at Ida Crown Jewish Academy.

How large of a scholarship is available?

The Heerey Scholarship can provide as much as a full tuition scholarship for qualifying students.

What do I need to do to apply for a Heerey Scholarship?

To apply for a Heerey Scholarship, complete the form below and submit it to the ICJA Business Office. You will be contacted after your ICJA scholarship amount has been determined. The only pre-requisite criteria are:

- Your family must qualify for tuition assistance through the regular ICJA scholarship process.
- Your family must have at least two children attending day schools.
- Your family's combined tuition payments must meet or exceed the cost of one day school tuition.

Is there a deadline for submitting the Heerey Scholarship application form?

The ICJA Business Office must receive the Heerey Scholarship application form by May 1st. This deadline is strictly adhered to. Please note that funds are limited and are on a first come first serve basis.
